

Fact cards

A rainbow has seven colours. They are red, orange, yellow, green, blue, indigo and violet.

Light always travels in straight lines. That is why shadows are made when light hits an object it cannot travel through.

Light is important in many festivals and celebrations, including Christmas, Divali and Hannukah.

We cannot see as well in the dark because there is less light entering our eyes. We cannot see anything in complete darkness.

