

Fact cards

Sound travels very quickly (340 metres per second).

Microphones can be used to make voices and singing louder.

Sound is produced by vibrations.

An echo is caused when a sound is bounced back from a surface.

