

Which material am I?

I am the solid that looks like air –
you might not see me but you'll know I'm there.

In your hair and in your hand
I bounce and stretch at your command.
I come from the sap of broken trees
and wipe away your words with ease.
I keep you safe when you're out to play and keep you dry on a rainy day.

My second is in ruler but not in tyre.
My first is in pipe but not in fire.
My third is in bag but not in bee.
My fourth is in seat but not in tea.

My fifth is in toy but not in scone.
My sixth is in bin but not in bone.

My seventh is in comb but not in me.
My whole's very useful I'm sure you'll agree.
