

National symbols of India

Indian peacock

The peacock represents beauty and is a symbol of power. It is also a signal of rain.

Royal Bengal tiger

The Royal Bengal tiger represents strength, grace and intelligence. Many Bengal tigers can be found in Sunderbans Tiger Reserve in West Bengal.

The Lion of Sarnath

The Lion of Sarnath is a statue that was built near the holy city of Varanasi in the 3rd century BCE. It marks the gift of peace and freedom brought by the Buddha.

